We regret the delay in corresponding with you relative to your application for employment with us. However, we wanted to explore all possibilities for you before we made a final decision.

Appropriate senior officials of the Agency have now concluded an extensive review of our personnel requirements in the various components of the Agency in an effort to locate a position commensurate to your excellent qualifications. Unfortunately, they have found no way in which your background and experience can be effectively utilized at this time.

Your interest in working with this organization is very much appreciated and we are indeed sorry our response could not be more favorable. Should an appropriate opening develop at some future date, we shall contact you.

Sincerely,

Signed

E. D. Schools
